

$5,000 Einstein Corporate Membership

An Einstein Corporate Membership allows your company to provide unique and significant benefits to your employees and their families, all while helping preserve the lessons and stories of nuclear science for future generations.

Your $5,000 Einstein Corporate Membership entitles you to the following:

- Six free Museum Passes
- Employees eligible for a 10% discount on Individual or Family Museum Memberships
- Invitation to Exhibition openings
- 25% discount on a corporate table at the 15th Annual Einstein Society Gala (Saturday, March 17, 2012)
- Listing on the Museum website with a “link” to your company’s website which receives more than 15,000 unique visitors monthly
- Recognition in the Museum’s newsletter distributed to nearly 4,000 readers three times per year, with an opportunity to distribute our e-newsletter company-wide to your employees
- Recognition in the Museum’s digital lobby display, which can be viewed by more than 55,000 Museum visitors annually
- Special recognition at industry-related trade conferences, such as Waste Management Symposia, Utilities Service Alliance, and Society of Nuclear Medicine. Recognition may include:
 - Your corporate logo prominently displayed in the Museum’s exhibit booth
 - Your corporate logo and recognition as “a proud supporter of the Museum” on a specially designed promotional “tent card” which can be prominently displayed in your exhibit booth
